OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Alozie Nsirimobi
President 2022-2023

Fellow Rotarians, we are all welcome to the 9th Week of the 117th year of the Rotary International and 60th day of the 2022/23 Rotary year.

Last week was full of good news for our club. Last in the list, is the Emergence as the Overall best club in the just-concluded 2022 RYLA event. Thanks to the RYLA team and the entire club members for all your support: We sponsored the highest number of candidates (41).

Co-sponsored a day with RC Lagos for our visit and fellowship at the Seaschool and had the highest number of membership turn out to Seaschool (45 members), our Club's

Women in Rotary arm distributed sanitary towels to the female candidates and we Co-sponsored the closing ceremony. It can only be Gbagada.

In addition, 5 of our sponsored candidates got medals (leadership pins) for their excellent performance in their events competition, while, one was denied certificate for gross misconduct. Their certificates will be sent to the clubs to issue to them.

Also, last week, we confirmed that RI has credited our account for the Global Grant aided Eye Hospital project in Ota. All hands are now on deck for the project to take off. The news of approval of another Global Grant funded project, The WASH programme, was also received. Thanks to all who made it happen. All necessary actions will be taken for successful take off and completion of the projects.

Tuesday, 30th is our Board meeting, to be hosted by the President-Elect. The notice of the meeting has been sent out by the secretary. 31st is our CnC / We Care night. The chair of Membership Committee and his team are smoothening the rough edges of the event and collation of prospects names.

The District Governor and other District officials have assured of their attendance. Thanks to all members who submitted names of prospects. We will be grateful at more. Let's show that we are not rowdy, we are only excited when we play host and display our generosity.

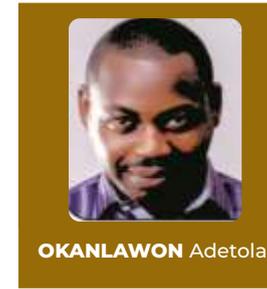

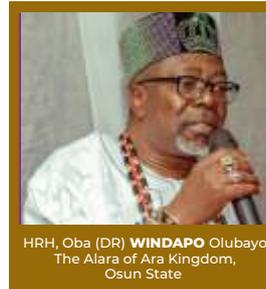

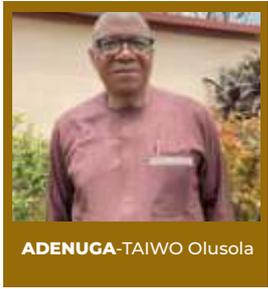

The Investiture of the president is on countdown. The PE and her committee needs our cooperation to make it memorable. August 29th to September 1st, D9110 will be on a Rotary Means Business Friendship Exchange with D2440 Turkey.

Those who registered, kindly note.
Thanks and wishing us all a pleasant end of month.

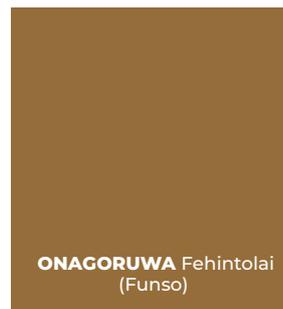

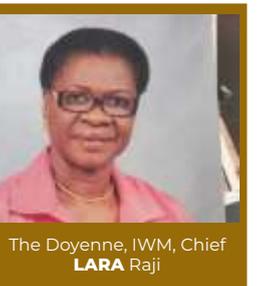

Yours in Service.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Fellow Rotarians, On behalf of the Editorial Board, I welcome all to week 9 of the Imaginative Rotary Year. It is still another week in the Membership and Extension month of the Rotary International calendar. Rotary Club of Gbagada remains focus and determined to further widen the gap from others through the methodical and aggressive membership drive.

Rotary Youth Leadership Academy (RYLA) takes the centre stage last week. The was awarded as the best club at the organised Rotary Youth Leadership Academy (RYLA).

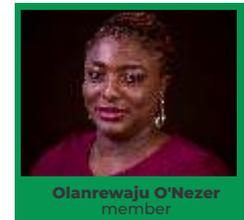

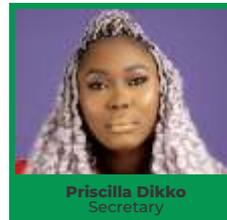

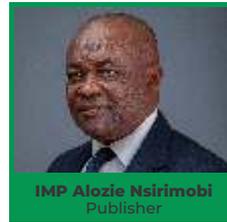

Rotary Club of Gbagada has sponsored 41 out of the 401 students presently participating at the RYLA camp, Sea - School, Apapa, Lagos; This number is the highest sponsored by any Rotary Club across District 9110. Gbagada lead, others follow... among the decorated Rylarians 6 of the club sponsored Rylarians were decorated with pins

In this edition, the usual menu are served for our enjoyment, refreshment and learning purposes.

Lets enjoy it together.

Yours in Rotary
Wale JUNAID

PODUIM

IN A NICK OF TIME

An antagonistic writing by Kehinde Olaitan Onike

* * * * *

Depression doesn't just happen in a day. It's a process and so is suicidal thoughts. It occurs when one thing or the other bleeps with our mental health. Just like everyone else, I was brooding but little did I know that I was soliloquizing until my phone rang and it brought me out of my riverie. The caller ID read, Astro. He was my favorite person and he'd had called just in time when I needed someone.

"Baby girl, how are you? I have gist for you," He said sounding excited.

"I'm having suicidal thoughts Astro," I responded.

"Funny! How can that be? Oga, go get some sleep. Anyway, I have a girlfriend. I just thought I should let you know," He finished

"That's good, I'm happy for you. Hey! Can we talk later? Dad needs me," I told him just before he hung up.

I kept staring at the sniper bottle on the table as well as the list of reasons to live and not to leave for. There were more reasons to leave and so I had no other option but to take my own life. It was mine and nobody's after all. Just when I wanted to pour the liquid in my mouth, my phone rang. The caller ID read Johnson —thanks to truecaller.

"Hello! My name is Johnson, the Collegiate Chair. I hope I'm on to Miss Ayobami? He asked.

"Yes you're. How may I help you?" I asked out of curiosity.

"I'd like you to be the secretary of my committee because I could really use your writing prowess," he added.

"Speak no more, I accept!" I replied with a smile.

This is another opportunity at life. This is more than a reason to live.

* * * * *

"Ayobami?" A serenading voice called out from behind me.

"Yes?" I responded as I turned in the direction of the voice. He's cuter in person than he is in the picture on his WhatsApp profile.

"You must be Johnson, the Collegiate Chair?" I asked.

It was the first time I'd be meeting with him since he made me his Secretary. Every single meeting the committee had scheduled had been

"Truth?" He asked ignoring my question and I nodded in a up and down movement as though to say "yes".

"You're a beauty to behold." He grinned.

Darn! Did he just say that? Did he just call me beautiful? If this is a dream, I had better wake up because even the guy who hosted me the night before failed to see this beauty despite wearing a light make up. All he saw was my big butt that moved in sync with the cute waist bead that sat beautifully beneath my red thong. He could have done well to stay mum about noticing that because the moment was embarrassing. However, here I was with no make up and my skin white because of the hamattern due to the fact that I didn't cream my body for I forgot my body cream at home— how more insensitive can my host get? For a split second, I was thankful to have not been light skinned, hence, I turn tomato here and now.

"Thank you for the compliment and for helping with my bag," I said grinning from ear to ear.

I had no idea when he collected the bag though but what I wanted to say was;

"thank you for giving me a reason to live and truth be told, I love you,"

Damn! Is this how people fall head over heels for someone? I suppose not.

"Always," he smiled.

"Hey! So, how long is the drive from here to the radio station?" I asked which caused us to simultaneously check the time with our wristwatch.

He was using a designer watch, 007 and Rolex product. I could recognize tge watch anywhere even in my dream. It was the same one a friend gave me as a parting gift. It must have cost a fortune though.

"It's a 10 minutes drive. So, I guess we could wait 20 minute because my club is about to execute a project that'd commence soon, " He responded.

"Okay," I smiled.

"This way please," he added.

No matter what you're going through in life, always remember the words of John Steinbeck, a renowned writer who said; "It seems to me that if you or I must choose between two courses of thoughts or actions, we must remember our dying and try so to live that our death beings no pleasure to the world."
